MICHELLE MAYNARD JOINS OTTEN JOHNSON AS DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATION

Denver, Colorado - Otten Johnson Robinson Neff + Ragonetti PC has added Michelle M. Maynard as the firm's Director of Administration. Michelle comes to Otten Johnson with over twenty years of experience in various administrative positions; both in law firms and as a consultant. Her educational background includes an MBA from the University of Colorado and a BSBM from the University of Phoenix.

In 2003, Michelle earned the designation of Certified Legal Manager (CLM); a designation achieved through examination in 47 critical areas of effective law firm management. In 2005, Michelle served as president of the Mile High Chapter Association of Legal Administrators (ALA). She has served on numerous committees with the Mile High ALA, Legal Marketers Association, and Association for Corporate Growth.

"Michelle's experience will be a great benefit to the firm – we are very fortunate to have her as our Director of Administration," stated Jim Johnson, Otten Johnson's managing director. "As we grow and adapt to meet our clients' changing demands, Michelle's management and financial background will be a key advantage."

Otten Johnson is a leading commercial law firm in Colorado, highly regarded for its real estate and land use practices.
